

A new modular solution for building reinforced concrete bridges.

The innovative InQuik system is pre-engineered, saving you time and money.

InQuik bridges can be installed in less than a week, after the foundation is complete.

The system uses prefabricated components incorporating the reinforcing steel & formwork.

The lightweight modular components are lifted into place, spliced together and filled with concrete.

InQuik is a complete solution - above grade!

